Kensington recognizes that most businesses operate differently. So we've designed custom solutions that allow you to select the ideal level of IT control over your equipment while helping employees safeguard against theft and avoid downtime due to misplaced keys. NOTE: All custom locks are non-returnable.

► 1. Company Information (final location for ordered locks)

a. Company Name

b. Street Address

c. City, State, Zip

► 2. Custom Lock Configuration

a. SKU Ordered: 1 2
3

SKU Description: 1
2
3

b. Access Type

i. Master

Unique, individual keys and locks for computers; master key opens all locks. Allows individuals access to own equipment while IT manager has control of all the equipment and data.

ii. Supervisor

All locks are alike; only one master key will open locks. No individual keys provided. Designed to reduce risk in classroom, lab, or library environments.

iii. Like Keyed

All locks are alike; all user keys open every lock. Suited for shared work environment with low risk of internal equipment or data theft. Allows associates access to all equipment.

c. Do you want to have this keyed to an existing custom access system? Yes

No
Existing System or Master Key Code

Need help identifying your master key code? See the lock image to identify where the code can be found.

Find your keycode

► 3. Future Orders

a. Would you like us to always build the above configuration for future orders of this lock? Yes No

(If no, we will confirm the configuration for each order)

► 4. Master Key Administrators

Master Key administrators are the users of your organization that you are willing to grant access to ordering, reordering, and master key privileges. Our customer service team will only send master keys to the personnel listed below. If more than two are needed, please feel free to add additional administrators to the body of the e-mail when sending your application to customsecurity@kensington.com
