July 30, 2012

Dear Tracy,

Congratulations on behalf of the Folsom Lake College Foundation Board of Directors. The Foundation Board has approved a mini-grant submitted by you in the amount of $500.00 in support of the One Book program. The funds, available during the 2012-13 academic year, are provided to pay for the following:

$100.00 for book reserves

$100.00 for advertising

$300.00 in honorariums for speakers/films

The funds are to be used in accordance with the budget submitted with your application. The grant is subject to the terms and conditions outlined in the submitted application. You will be notified by the Business Service Office when the funds are available for your use. Please note that you will need to follow standard District purchasing and requisition protocol as outlined in the budget handbook. If you have any questions regarding this process, please contact the Business Services Office.

Congratulations!

Sincerely,

Kristin Haas

GENERAL CONDITIONS:

1. Scope of Work. CONTRACTOR shall perform specific services as set forth below (attach separate schedule if necessary, and reference the attachment). The term of this Agreement is from (date) 4-3-13 to (date) 4-3-13. CONTRACTOR shall perform its services hereunder in accordance with the professional standard of care, skill and diligence customarily followed by consultants performing similar professional services on projects of comparable scope and quality.

2. Compensation. For its services hereunder, CONTRACTOR shall be paid a sum of money not to exceed $ 75.00, during the term of this Agreement. Payment of this amount shall be made in accordance with established District payment schedules, and is contingent upon the CONTRACTOR submitting an invoice to the District Accounts Payable Office, and upon receipt of verification of services satisfactorily rendered (receiver) by the appropriate College/District Administrator. Payment terms are: Net 30, upon receipt of invoice. Payment will be mailed to address on purchase order. CONTRACTOR agrees that none of the terms and conditions associated with its acceptance of this Agreement shall apply to, modify, or be incorporated into this Agreement, and the DISTRICT's acceptance of CONTRACTOR's goods, materials, equipment, services and/or labor or other items covered by or delivered under this Agreement shall not constitute acceptance of any additional or different terms and conditions on behalf of CONTRACTOR.

3. Termination. The DISTRICT shall have the right to terminate this Agreement with or without cause. The District may terminate the Agreement for convenience at any time and for any reason by giving thirty (30) days written notice of such termination to CONTRACTOR. In the event of termination for convenience, CONTRACTOR shall immediately cease rendering services and promptly deliver to the DISTRICT copies of all prepared work product, and CONTRACTOR shall only be entitled to payment for hours actually worked and direct costs incurred, plus a 10% mark-up on direct costs incurred, or the pro-rata share of the contract price, whichever is less. The DISTRICT may terminate the Agreement for cause which shall be effective immediately upon written notice. In the event of a termination for cause, CONTRACTOR shall not be entitled to any further payment, if any becomes due, until the Project is completed. The DISTRICT may proceed with the work in any manner deemed proper by DISTRICT, and all the DISTRICT's costs incurred by the District shall be deducted from any sum otherwise due CONTRACTOR under this Agreement and the balance, if any, shall be paid to CONTRACTOR upon completion of the work. The DISTRICT reserves all rights, including all rights to recover damages, inclusive of attorneys' fees, from CONTRACTOR, in the event of a termination for cause.

4. Integration, Amendments. This Agreement (front & back) and the purchase order constitute the entire Agreement by the parties. No other representations, whether oral or written are part of this Agreement except that the following document(s) are part of this Agreement: _____
All amendments to this Agreement must be in writing and signed by authorized representatives of both parties.

5. Independent CONTRACTOR not Agent.

- a. CONTRACTOR, and its agents and employees, in the performance of this Agreement, shall be independent contractor(s) and no relationship of employer-employee exists between these parties and the DISTRICT.
- b. CONTRACTOR shall be responsible for determining the means, methods, or sequence used to complete the work required under this Agreement. CONTRACTOR shall be responsible for and accountable to the DISTRICT for the final product or service to be provided.
- c. If, in the performance of this Agreement, any third persons are employed by CONTRACTOR, such persons shall be entirely and exclusively under the direction, supervision, and control of CONTRACTOR. Except as may be specifically provided elsewhere in this Agreement, all terms of employment, including hours, wages, working conditions, discipline, hiring, and discharging, or any other terms of employment or requirements of law, shall be determined by CONTRACTOR. It is further understood and agreed that CONTRACTOR shall issue W-2 or 1099 Forms for income and employment tax purposes, for all of CONTRACTOR's employees, assigned personnel and subcontractors.
- d. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, CONTRACTOR is qualified to accomplish the work required in this Agreement and the DISTRICT will provide no training to CONTRACTOR.
- e. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, CONTRACTOR's ability to market or provide services to any other client shall not be limited by the DISTRICT.
- f. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, CONTRACTOR is to provide all necessary tools and materials.
- g. Prior to DISTRICT's acceptance of this Agreement, CONTRACTOR shall (a) identify their status as a sole proprietorship, partnership, or corporation, and (b) provide the DISTRICT with a copy of IRS Form W-9, Request for Certification of Federal Taxpayer Identification Number.
- h. CONTRACTOR agrees that, upon request, CONTRACTOR shall provide any documentation requested by the DISTRICT as evidence that appropriate taxes have been paid. If CONTRACTOR fails to pay appropriate taxes or to provide requested documentation, CONTRACTOR hereby agrees to indemnify the DISTRICT against any penalties and taxes levied against the DISTRICT by a taxing agency, and to reimburse the DISTRICT for such penalties and taxes.

Signature below by CONTRACTOR indicates that all parts of this Agreement have been read, understood and accepted.

Dear Ms. Raushkolb,

On behalf of the underserved Sacramento area residents that we serve, as well as all of us here at Opening Doors, please allow me to express a heartfelt thank you for your recent donation.

Your donation will make a big difference. Opening Doors is a small agency that manages to do a lot—for survivors of human trafficking, refugees who have fled war or persecution in their own countries, as well as immigrants and low-income members of our community trying to understand our financial system or become self-sufficient by creating businesses.

Because of generous donors like you, survivors of human trafficking and newly-arrived refugees are able to settle into safe homes, get medical and other needed care and begin the process of restarting their lives. As they adjust to their new homes, they can learn about the US financial system and gain skills for managing their money; they can explore the possibilities of starting small businesses, get business training, and receive the capital they need to begin through Opening Doors' microloan program.

Your donation not only enables us to continue and expand this work; it supports our community's underserved as they begin their journey towards health, confidence and self-sufficiency. Please accept our most sincere thanks for your support.

Sincerely,

Erika Gonzalez

Service Agreement Certification Form

Requisition No CBF 35422
Description of Services One Book Honorarium -
April 3, 2013

As of January 1, 2003, Education Code Section 88003.1 restricts the District's ability to contract for services. Before a requisition can be processed, the following certificate must be completed indicating that the required service meets the Ed Code criteria.

Section I

The requisition will not go forward for processing unless you answer yes to at least one of the questions below:

- | | Yes | No |
|--|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1. Is this a continuing Service Agreement that was in place before January 1, 2003? | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 2. The Legislature has specifically mandated or authorized the service to be contracted out. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 3. The necessary services are either unavailable within the District workforce, cannot be satisfactorily performed by employees, or are very highly specialized. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 4. The services are incidental to a contract for the purchase of real or personal property, for example a service contract for office equipment. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 5. Contracting out is necessary to avoid a conflict of interest or other legal problem, or where an outside perspective is needed. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 6. The service is needed to respond to an emergency. The contract shall be no longer than sixty days. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 7. The contractor will provide equipment, materials, facilities or support services that could not feasibly be provided by District staff. | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 8. The services are so urgent, temporary or occasional that the delay in the District's hiring process would frustrate the purpose. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |

Section II

If the services do not fall within one of the above exceptions, the requisition will not go forward unless you answer yes to all of the following questions:

- | | | |
|--|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1. There clearly will be actual overall cost savings. | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| a. The District must consider the salaries and benefits of additional staff and the cost of additional space, equipment and materials. | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| b. The District shall not include the District's indirect overhead costs, unless those costs would be exclusively caused by the work. | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| c. The District shall include the District's costs of supervising, inspecting or monitoring the contractor. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 2. The services are not being contracted out solely to save money. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 3. The contract does not cause the displacement of District employees. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 4. The savings must be large enough that market fluctuations will not tip the balance. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 5. The amount of savings must clearly justify the size and duration of the contract. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 6. The contract must be publicly bid. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 7. The contract includes specific qualifications of the staff that will perform the work and includes nondiscrimination provisions. | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 8. There is minimal risk of contractor rate increases. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 9. The contract is with a firm. | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 10. The potential economic advantage of contracting out is not outweighed by the public interest in having the work done in-house. | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |

If the services do not qualify under Section I or II, then the services must be completed by District staff and the requisition cannot be processed.

INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR vs. EMPLOYEE CHECKLIST

This questionnaire is to be used to determine if an individual is an independent contractor or employee. The individual should be consulted where necessary to answer all questions. If you believe that the individual qualifies as an independent contractor, submit a requisition, service agreement, checklist, and any explanatory attachments. The contract will not be valid until a Purchase Order is issued, and no agreements should be made nor should work commence before that time. Due consideration should be given to all questions, since the penalty to the originating department for misclassification is approximately 50% of the contract amount. For more information see the District Purchasing Guide. If you have any questions or require assistance, please contact the Director, Accounting Services at the District Office.

- | | Y | N |
|--|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1. Has this person ever been employed by the District? If so, please explain when and in what capacity _____. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 2. Does the work include teaching, training, facilitating, counseling, curriculum development, workshops, seminars, or any other function related to education? If so, please explain _____. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 3. Will the District exercise any control, direction or supervision of the contractor? If so, please explain _____. | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |

If the answer to any of the above questions is "Yes" this person should be classified as an employee. If you believe that independent contractor status can still be justified, please attach a statement explaining why, and continue to question #4. If the answer to all of the above questions is "No", continue to question #4.

- | | | |
| 4. Must this individual perform the services (as opposed to the individual subcontracting or assigning the work to others)? Please explain to what extent the individual may or may not hire/subcontract others to do the work _____. | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 5. Has this individual worked for the District as an independent contractor in the past? If so, please explain the nature of past services (for what period, continuous vs. intermittent, how many hours, etc.) _____. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 6. Can the contractor quit for any reason other than the District's breach of contract? | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 7. Can the District terminate the contract for any reason other than the contractor's breach of contract? | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |

If the answer to three or more of these questions 4 through 7 are "Yes" this person should be classified as an employee. If you believe that independent contractor status can still be justified, please attach a statement explaining why and continue to question #8.

- | | | |
|---|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 8. Does the individual operate an independent trade or business, offering these same services to the general public? If so, please ask the individual what proportion of their annual revenues are obtained from the District:
Less than 25%- _____ Between 25% & 50% _____ Over 50 % X | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 9. Does this individual have a substantial investment in his/her business, maintain facilities, own/rent equipment, etc.? | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 10. Does the individual provide all materials, supplies, and support services necessary for performance of this service? If no, please explain _____. | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 11. Does the individual bear the cost of any travel and business expenses incurred to perform this service (no District reimbursement)? | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |

If the answer to questions 8 through 11 is "Yes", and the answer to questions 1 through 7 is "No", this individual can be classified as an independent contractor.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on the "Name" line to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS a percentage of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account, for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the "Name" line. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA)" name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Partnership, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name on the "Name" line and any business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA) name" on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Disregarded entity. Enter the owner's name on the "Name" line. The name of the entity entered on the "Name" line should never be a disregarded entity. The name on the "Name" line must be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income will be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a domestic owner, the domestic owner's name is required to be provided on the "Name" line. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line. If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, you must complete an appropriate Form W-8.

Note. Check the appropriate box for the federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on the "Name" line (Individual/sole proprietor, Partnership, C Corporation, S Corporation, Trust/estate).

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the person identified on the "Name" line is an LLC, check the "Limited liability company" box only and enter the appropriate code for the tax classification in the space provided. If you are an LLC that is treated as a partnership for federal tax purposes, enter "P" for partnership. If you are an LLC that has filed a Form 8832 or a Form 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation. If you are an LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Regulation section 301.7701-3 (except for employment and excise tax), do not check the LLC box unless the owner of the LLC (required to be identified on the "Name" line) is another LLC that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. If the LLC is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the appropriate tax classification of the owner identified on the "Name" line.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required federal tax documents on the "Name" line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Exempt Payee

If you are exempt from backup withholding, enter your name as described above and check the appropriate box for your status, then check the "Exempt payee" box in the line following the "Business name/disregarded entity name," sign and date the form.

Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

The following payees are exempt from backup withholding:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2),
 2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities,
 3. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities,
 4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities, or
 5. An international organization or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.
- Other payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:
6. A corporation,
 7. A foreign central bank of issue,
 8. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States,
 9. A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission,
 10. A real estate investment trust,
 11. An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940,
 12. A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a),
 13. A financial institution,
 14. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian, or
 15. A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947.

The following chart shows types of payments that may be exempt from backup withholding. The chart applies to the exempt payees listed above, 1 through 15.

IF the payment is for . . .	THEN the payment is exempt for . . .
Interest and dividend payments	All exempt payees except for 9
Broker transactions	Exempt payees 1 through 5 and 7 through 13. Also, C corporations.
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt payees 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 ¹	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 7 ²

² However, the following payments made to a corporation and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees, gross proceeds paid to an attorney, and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4 indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on the "Name" line must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt Payee on page 3.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 3, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

¹ List first and circle the name of the person whose number you furnish. If only one person on a joint account has an SSN, that person's number must be furnished.

² Circle the minor's name and furnish the minor's SSN.

³ You must show your individual name and you may also enter your business or "DBA" name on the "Business name/disregarded entity" name line. You may use either your SSN or EIN (if you have one), but the IRS encourages you to use your SSN.

⁴ List first and circle the name of the trust, estate, or pension trust. (Do not furnish the TIN of the personal representative or trustee unless the legal entity itself is not designated in the account title.) Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

*Note. Grantor also must provide a Form W-9 to trustee of trust.

Note. If no name is circled when more than one name is listed, the number will be considered to be that of the first name listed.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes.

Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.
