April 17, 2017

Dear Colleagues:

Attached is your institution's invoice for 2017-2018 dues to the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). We deeply appreciate the support of our members.

CHEA's 20th anniversary this year has provided an opportunity to look at our role as the only national organization focused exclusively on strengthening quality in higher education through accreditation. CHEA's work ranges from servicing as a voice for you on accreditation-related issues on Capitol Hill and to the Administration and speaking out to media and the public on accreditation's value to students and society to providing the most comprehensive, reliable information and research on accreditation and servicing as a national and international forum to address accreditation and quality assurance.

CHEA's outspoken advocacy for accreditation will be needed more than ever in the year ahead.

There is much that is unknown about the new Administration and its views on accreditation. Reauthorization of the Higher Education Act in the year ahead, while being discussed by Congress, also is uncertain. We don't know if media will continue to focus on accreditation, a focus that has been largely critical. There will be challenges for accreditation in addressing these uncertainties. We will take every opportunity to address the importance of accreditation and its focus on student protection and institutional improvement, as well as to offer suggestions for regulatory reform.

Please take a few minutes now to complete and return the attached dues invoice by mail or fax, or use the "Electronic Renewal Form" found on the home page of the CHEA Website (www.chea.org).

Your institution's membership in CHEA is very important to us. Thank you and we look forward to working with you in 2017-2018.

Sincerely,

Judith Eaton
President
