ESA MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. Membership Dues Descriptions

All members receive the same benefits, regardless of membership type. Choose the most appropriate classification for you and check the appropriate box in Section 1 on the front of this form.

Member – Regular member. Dues are personal and non-transferable. Member can be professional or hobbyist entomologist. Most members are in this category.

Emeritus – Must be retired, or semi-retired. By application only. For details and to apply, visit www.entsoc.org/Membership/categories.

Emeritus Gold – Emeritus members who have reached 75 years of age. Please list date of birth here: _____

President's Circle – Special contributor level to support a particular individual. Buy membership for a colleague in a developing nation.

Specify support here: _____

Student Member – Must be attending classes at least 1/2 time. Fill out student verification form below.

Student Transition – Must have graduated and be no longer attending classes and have been an ESA Student Member in 2018.

Early Professional – This category is for postdoctoral associates and others within 5 years of graduation from their highest educational degree.

Honorary – By election of ESA members.

Family Membership – Two members for one price. Members share subscriptions to one mailing address. List other name & ESA ID below:

Name _____ ESA ID # _____

2. Certification

Certification is a great career option for members and non-members to help define themselves in the field of entomology. ESA offers two programs: BCE for professionals with a degree in entomology and ACE for those that do not. Please see www.entocert.org for details and to apply.

Current ACEs and BCEs who are now retired from active service but would still like to retain their certification may be able to convert to Emeritus status. Contact bce@entsoc.org. Non-member ACEs have access to ESA eNews and receive an online subscription to American Entomologist.

3. Sections and Branches

You may belong to one Section and one Branch with no additional fees incurred. If you would like to join additional Sections or Branches, there is a $25 charge for each. The ESA Sections are: Medical, Urban, and Veterinary Entomology; Physiology, Biochemistry, and Toxicology; Plant-Insect Ecosystems, and; Systematics, Evolution, and Biodiversity. The ESA Branches are Eastern, International, North Central, Pacific, Southeastern, and Southwestern.

4. & 5. Publications & Postage

Members have online access to the ESA journals for free, starting at Volume 1. That's more than 160 issues of each journal! AE and eNews are free to members, although a postage charge is required for AE delivery outside the US and Canada.

ESA members also are entitled to discounted print subscriptions. US and Canadian subscriptions-class postage is included in the purchase price. International subscriptions that do not include postage will not be processed. Surface mail does not apply; airmail postage is required to increase deliverability.

Discounted publications for ESA members:

Annual Review of Entomology, Volume 64, January 2019, for $81.20 plus $6 s/h

To order: visit www.annualreviews.org and enter Sales code "ESA," email service@annualreview.org or phone 800-523-8635 (Toll-Free US/CAN); 650-493-4400 (Worldwide).

ESA Community

The ESA Community offers members a platform where they can discuss all things entomological, exchange ideas, ask questions, post documents, and easily connect online with other members from labs, universities, offices and other places of work around the world. Visit www.entsoc.org/community.
