Hi Colleen,

Here are 2 competing rolling screen vendors and costs from Amazon, and the RolaScreen cost. In my early search I was unable to find a direct comparison screen—a screen company who makes customizable screens that roll up to a small size, other than RolaScreen, and we will have very little storage space for the screens, so this is a need that we must consider. Here are two of the screens I looked at, and they can be compared for the basic screen cost, but RolaScreen fills our needs for storage, and they have better screen quality and customizability. I can request a quote from some of the office furniture companies, but again, I've not found anything that rolls up as compactly as RolaScreen, and the office furniture companies are a great deal more expensive.

Hi Vonnie,

I started working on this and ran into some snafos. Jen let me know that we need to get 2 other unofficial quotes because of the cost of the items. You can just go on the internet and look at other companies, load into a cart and take a picture of the cart with the pricing. If you do online just make sure to include internet address in pic. Or you can reach out to other companies and get a quote. They don't need to be vendors, we just need to show that pricing is reasonable for the one that we want to go with.

Hi Colleen,

Attached is the new quote from RolaScreen, with 2022 pricing. How do you want to handle the P.O.? Do you want to send it to Ephraim when you receive it or would you like to send it to me and I will connect with Ephraim? In December Ephraim said that he can lock in the order as we work on the graphic design, so let me know how you would like to handle that.

Thank you!

Happy New Year Ephraim!

We must encumber the funds for this purchase as soon as possible, and by end of January at latest. As soon as I verify that the quote is what we need, I will be sending the quote to Colleen Mesa, AA to my dean, for processing the P.O. As soon as the P.O. is available we will forward to you. Colleen will be handling the purchasing of the screens and may contact you directly if needed.

As for when we would be looking to take delivery of the screens, I am unsure of the timing once the screens are ordered. How long does the printing, delivery take?

I look forward to receiving the new quote.

Vonnie,

Happy New year.

Either works for us. If you provide us with your image, it has to be of the right resolution, see attached Printing template.
I still owe you a new quote, which I'll get out to you today. I'll include the logo cost that you requested unless you no longer want a logo.

Please advise when you will be ordering? With a full order book, it's important that we know when this will be ordered.

Also, when would you be looking to take delivery.

Please advise soonest.

Vonnice,

When we use logos on a screen design we charge for each logo used, because time is involved in placement design and manipulating the logo so it fits the screen panel. The original quote we sent is attached. We indicated the cost of doing this but did not include it in the total of the quote because at that time we were unaware if you would be using a logo or not. I have also attached and highlighted the statement we made in the email we sent on 10/27.

Many thanks

I'm not sure what you mean by wanting a "logo." Is that us submitting a logo to put on one side of the screen, or having a logo designed?

Vonnie,

When we sent the original quote it was unclear whether you would want logos as part of the images.
If that's the case price will increase by $189 per screen x 2 = $378 - Discount of 29% = $268.38.

Please advise or contact me to discuss.
